“voluntary organisation” means a body, other than a public or local authority, whose activities are not carried on for profit.

PART 4

Enforcement

Enforcement authority

7.—(1) It shall be the duty of every enforcement authority to enforce this Order.

(2) The duty referred to in paragraph (1) applies to the enforcement of the Order within the authority’s area.

Penalty for breach of the requirement to belong to a redress scheme

8.—(1) Where an enforcement authority is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that a person has failed to comply with the requirement to belong to a redress scheme under article 3 (requirement to belong to a redress scheme: lettings agency work) or article 5 (requirement to belong to a redress scheme: property management work), the authority may by notice require the person to pay the authority a monetary penalty (a “monetary penalty”) of such amount as the authority may determine.

(2) The amount of the monetary penalty must not exceed £5,000.

(3) The Schedule provides for the procedure relating to the imposition of a monetary penalty.

(a) 1974 c.7

(b) 2002 c.15

(c) 1996 c.52

(d) Section 1(1)(b) was amended by S.I. 2009/1941 Schedule 1 paragraph 194(1) and (2).

(e) Section 73 (2)(b) was amended by S.I. 2009/1941 Schedule 1 paragraph 194(1) and (15).

Appeals

9.—(1) A person who is served with a notice imposing a monetary penalty under paragraph 3 of the Schedule (a “final notice”) may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against that notice.

(2) The grounds for appeal are that—

- (a) the decision to impose a monetary penalty was based on an error of fact;
- (b) the decision was wrong in law;
- (c) the amount of the monetary penalty is unreasonable;
- (d) the decision was unreasonable for any other reason.

(3) Where a person has appealed to the First-tier Tribunal under paragraph (1), the final notice is suspended until the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.

(4) The Tribunal may —

- (a) quash the final notice;
- (b) confirm the final notice;
- (c) vary the final notice.

Recovery of monetary penalty

10.—(1) The enforcement authority may recover the monetary penalty on the order of a court, as if payable under a court order.

(2) In proceedings for the recovery of the amount due, a certificate which is—

- (a) signed by the enforcement authority’s chief finance officer (within the meaning of section 5 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989(a)); and
- (b) states that the amount due has not been received by a date specified in that certificate, is conclusive evidence of that fact, and a certificate to that effect and purporting to be signed is to be treated as being signed, unless the contrary is proved.

(3) Sums received by an enforcement authority under a monetary penalty may be used by the authority for any of its functions.

SCHEDULE

Article 8

Procedure for the imposition of a monetary penalty

Notice of intent

1.—(1) Where an enforcement authority proposes to impose a monetary penalty on a person, the authority must serve on that person a notice of what is proposed (a “notice of intent”).

(2) The notice of intent must be served within 6 months of the date on which the enforcement authority is first satisfied that the person has failed to comply with article 3 (requirement to belong to a redress scheme: lettings agency work) or article 5 (requirement to belong to a redress scheme: property management work).

(a) 1989 c.42; amendments have been made to section 5 but they are not relevant to this Order.

- (3) The notice of intent must include—
- (a) the reasons for imposing the monetary penalty;
 - (b) the amount of the penalty;
 - (c) information as to the right to make representations and objections within 28 days beginning with the day after the date on which the notice of intent was sent.

Making representations and objections

2. A person on whom a notice of intent is served may within 28 days beginning with the day after the date on which the notice was sent make written representations and objections to the enforcement authority in relation to the proposed imposition of a monetary penalty.

Final notice

3.—(1) After the end of the period for making representations and objections, the enforcement authority must decide whether to impose the monetary penalty, with or without modifications.

(2) Where an enforcement authority decides to impose a monetary penalty on a person, the authority must serve on that person a final notice imposing that penalty.

- (3) The final notice must include—
- (a) the reasons for imposing the monetary penalty;
 - (b) information about the amount to be paid;
 - (c) information about how payment may be paid;
 - (d) information about the period in which the payment must be made, which must not be less than 28 days;
 - (e) information about rights of appeal; and
 - (f) information about the consequences of failing to comply with the notice.

Withdrawing or amending a notice

4. The enforcement authority may at any time by giving notice in writing —
- (a) withdraw a notice of intent or final notice;
 - (b) reduce the amount specified in the notice of intent or final notice.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order requires persons who engage in lettings agency work and persons who engage in property management work to belong to a redress scheme for dealing with complaints in connection with that work. The Order also makes provision for enforcement of that requirement.

Article 3 imposes the requirement to belong to a redress scheme on persons who engage in lettings agency work.

Lettings agency work is defined in section 83(7), (8) and (9)(a) of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013 (2013 c.24). Section 83(9)(b) provides that lettings agency work does not include things of a description or things done by a person of a description specified in an Order. Article 4 prescribes those things that are not lettings agency work for the purposes of section 83.

Article 5 imposes the requirement to belong to a redress scheme on persons who engage in property management work.

Property management work is defined in section 84(6) and (7)(a) of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013. Section 84(7)(b) provides that property management work does not include things of a description or things done by a person of a description specified in an Order. Article 6 prescribes those things that are not property management work for the purposes of section 84.

Article 7 imposes a duty on enforcement authorities to enforce the Order.

Article 8 provides for the monetary penalty that may be imposed by the enforcement authority where a person has failed to comply with the requirement to belong to a redress scheme. The Schedule provides for the procedure to be followed where the enforcement authority intends to impose a monetary penalty.

Article 9 provides for rights of appeal against a monetary penalty.

Article 10 provides for the enforcement of a monetary penalty.

A regulatory impact assessment has been prepared in relation to the Order and will be placed in the Library of each House of Parliament and made available on www.gov.uk. Copies may be obtained from the Department for Communities and Local Government, 2 Marsham Street, London, SW1P 4DF
