RECENT TEST PURCHASE OPERATION
 DECLINED TO SELL ALCOHOL TO A PERSON UNDER THE AGE OF 18 YEARS

Dear Sir/Madam,

On the 27/10/2010, a Police operation relating to the sale of intoxicants to under- aged persons took place in various districts of Sheffield. The above premises, of which you are the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) was one of those premises visited by an underage person, who attempted to make a purchase of alcohol from you or a member of your staff.

I am pleased to inform you that no such sale was made, and you or your staff at that time made a correct decision in identifying this person as being under age to purchase alcohol.

Please pass on our congratulations to the member of staff concerned and highlight this success to the rest of your staff members.

Sheffield Liquor Licensing Department record all known test purchase passes and fails, and firm action is taken against those premises which fail to come up to an acceptable standard.

Please continue to be vigilant and use the 'Challenge 21' initiative. If you or your staff have any doubt about the age of a young customer after challenging them, it would be wise to decline a sale.

Once again, well done to you and your staff.

Regards

As an agency responsible for the enforcement of age-restricted sales legislation, Sheffield Trading Standards periodically carries out test purchasing exercises on local businesses to check for compliance with the law.

We are pleased to inform you that in our latest series of test purchases on the 23 February 2011 relating to the sale of cigarettes / tobacco a test purchasing volunteer was unsuccessful in purchasing cigarettes from your premises. We would like to congratulate and commend the members of staff involved for their diligent and responsible attitude in refusing to sell age-restricted products to our volunteer. Well done, and keep up the good work of refusing to sell age-restricted products young customers.

Please continue to be vigilant and remember that if you or your staff have any doubt about the age of a young customer after challenging them, and requesting identification it would be wise to decline a sale.

If you require any additional information on age restricted sales or are interested in joining our free Responsible Retailer Scheme please contact Greg Ward on 0114 2736241.

Yours faithfully,

Philip Glaves
