RECENT TEST PURCHASE OPERATION
DECLINED TO SELL ALCOHOL TO A PERSON UNDER THE AGE OF 18 YEARS

Dear Licensee

On the 27th of July 2006 a Police operation relating to the sale of intoxicants to under aged persons took place in various districts of Sheffield. The above premises, of which you are the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) was one of those premises visited by a 15 or 16 year old young person, who attempted to make a purchase of alcohol from you or a member of your staff.

I am pleased to inform you that no such sale was made, and you or your staff at that time made a correct decision in identifying this person as being under age to purchase alcohol.

Please pass on our congratulations to the member of staff concerned and highlight this success to the rest of your staff members.

Sheffield Liquor Licensing Department record all known test purchase passes and fails, and firm action is taken against those premises which fail to come up to an acceptable standard.

Please continue to be vigilant and use the 'Challenge 21' initiative. If you or your staff have any doubt about the age of a young customer after challenging them, it would be wise to decline a sale.

Once again, well done to you and your staff.

Dear Sir or Madam

Retailer No: 434910

You will be aware following a previous visit that National Lottery retailers are being tested to establish whether they are employing the appropriate safeguards to prevent under age sales.

I can inform you that a second visit was recently made to your premises using a young person and I am pleased to say that your staff refused to sell a National Lottery ticket on that occasion. Your staff must remain vigilant, however, and do everything possible to prevent sales to persons under 16 years.

Congratulations once more and keep up the good work.

Yours faithfully
