At 0330 hrs on Friday 25th October 2019, a disturbance took place within the premises PIZZA ROYAL, HOLYWELL STREET, CHESTERFIELD. Police officers attended the disturbance and as a result of this unprovoked attack a male received a broken arm by an unknown offender.

Crucial to the investigation is CCTV, however enquiries by officers at the above premises on the night and in subsequent days established that no staff member present on the night or there after knew how to operate the system.

Officers have eventually accessed the system 8 days later to find that the system only retained images for 7 days, all possible images had been written over. Key witness evidence has been lost.

Mr Hamid Reza Jaberri became the current Premises Licence Holder on 13th May 2016, as such as holder of the licence Mr Jaberri should be aware and enforce all conditions upon his licence.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application (please read guidance note 3)

It is the view of the Chief Officer of Police that the Prevention of Crime and Disorder and Public Safety licensing objectives have been undermined in this matter.

Derbyshire Constabulary cannot satisfy themselves that Premises Licence Holder is able to show due regard to the above two licensing conditions. This is clearly covered in annex three of the Premises Licence, this condition being added to the licence by the licensing committee on 20th September 2011, with effect from 20th October 2011;

To install and maintain a closed-circuit television system to a standard required by Police Licensing.

This system will be operational and recording during any time when the premises are open for licensable activities as specified within the premises licence. The system will cover the inside and immediately outside the premises. This system will keep all recorded images for a period of no less than twenty-eight days. There must be a person trained in the use of the system either at the premises or available to retrieve any recorded images or data immediately upon request of a police officer or authorised person acting on behalf of a responsible authority as detailed within Section 13 of the Licensing Act 2003

If yes please state the date of that application

Review application was made based on the premises previously named as "Monzil Curry", being subject to test purchase exercises between May and June 2011 operating after their permitted hours.

Secondly an application to transfer the premises licence on 28th June 2011 was found to be fraudulent, signatures had been forged on documents.

It must be noted that the current Premises Licence Holder Hamid Jaberri was in no way connected with the above matters, Mr Jaberri became licence holder on 13th may 2016.
