

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2022/23

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 Chesterfield Borough Council is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities, and ensuring that its supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking.
- 1.2 This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement sets out the Council's actions to understand potential modern slavery risks related to its business and put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human tracking in its own business, and its supply chains.
- 1.3 This Modern Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023.

2.0 The Modern Slavery Act 2015

- 2.1 The Modern Slavery Act 2015 consolidates various offences relating to human trafficking and slavery. In broad terms:
- 'slavery' is where ownership is exercised over a person
  - 'servitude' involves coercion to oblige a person to provide services
  - 'forced and compulsory labour' is where a person works or provides services on a non-voluntary basis under the threat of a penalty
  - 'human trafficking' involves arranging or facilitating the travel of a person with a view to exploiting them
- 2.2 Section 52 of the Act imposes a duty on public authorities, including district councils, to notify the Secretary of State of suspected victims of slavery or human trafficking. Section 54 of the Act imposes a legal duty on organisations, which supply goods and/or services from or to the UK and have a global turnover above £36 million, to publish a slavery and human trafficking statement each financial year. The public sector is not covered by this piece of legislation however as Chesterfield Borough Council engages in commercial activities by providing services (statutory and discretionary), and its annual turnover is greater than £36million we have decided to produce an annual statement on a voluntary basis.

3.0 Standards

- 3.1 Chesterfield Borough Council will meet the following standards and also expects those with whom it does business with, to meet these standards:
- To support every individual's human right to live free from abuse, servitude and inhumane treatment
  - To promote ethical business and operational practices in corporate activity and the services delivered
  - To take appropriate steps to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking part in any of its business or supply chains
  - To take reports of witnessed, suspected or disclosed concerns of slavery and human trafficking seriously
  - To take appropriate steps with relevant partner agencies to address actual instances of slavery and human trafficking.
- 3.2 In December 2018 Chesterfield Borough Council signed up to the Co-operative Party Charter against modern slavery. The charter recognises the important role that local authorities in the UK can play in reducing modern slavery, in particular through its procurement activity and supply chains. We are using the charter as an improvement tool to strengthen our policies, procedures and practices to maximise our impact particularly in the prevention of modern slavery.

4.0 Procurement and supply chains

- 4.1 Chesterfield Borough Council spends in excess of £40 million each year on supplies and services from other organisations to help us to deliver our Council Plan and provide over 50 services for our communities. Examples of things we buy include waste collection services, energy, vehicles, catering products, building works, specialist consultancy support, seeds, equipment and IT software.
- 4.2 During 2020/21 we moved to an in-house procurement service designed to strengthen the Council's capacity and expertise in procurement and successfully deliver the Procurement Strategy 2020 – 2023. Modern Slavery prevention forms a key part of our new strategy. A new ICT system has been developed and deployed which captures all the Council's procurement activity in one place to improve data quality and visibility of procurement activity and spend.

- 4.3 Within our procurement process, Chesterfield Borough Council expects all suppliers of goods and services to comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations [and codes] from time to time in force [including [but not limited to] the Modern Slavery Act 2015, their own anti-slavery policy (where applicable) and this Modern Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement.
- 4.4 All new suppliers for new or extended contracts are required to self-certify during the tendering process whether the Modern Slavery Act applies to them and that they meet the requirements of the Act.
- 4.5 The Council also requires its contractors and sub-contractors engaged activities with children and vulnerable adults to have safeguarding policies, procedures and training in place and to comply with the reporting procedures in the Council's Safeguarding Policy.

5.0 Policies and plans

- 5.1 Chesterfield Borough Council has a range of policies and plans in place which reflect its commitment to acting ethically and with integrity to prevent slavery and human trafficking in its operations:
- Vision and Council Plan - The Council's vision is 'Putting our Communities First' and our Council Plan includes a key objective of improving quality of life for our communities.
  - Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy and Procedure – sets out how the Council will safeguard and promote the welfare of children and vulnerable adults who come into contact with its services and activities. The policy covers how the Council should comply with the duty to notify the Secretary of State of suspected victims of slavery and human trafficking.
  - Whistleblowing Policy – encourages all its employees to report concerns about any aspect of service provision, conduct of officers and others acting on behalf of the Council, or the supply chain. The policy is designed to make it easy to make disclosures without fear of discrimination and victimisation.

- Employee Code of Conduct – is the ethical framework that employees work to, which makes clear the actions and behaviour expected of them when representing the Council. The Council strives to maintain the highest standards of employee conduct and ethical behaviour and breaches are investigated.
- Recruitment Policy – sets out robust procedures for vetting new employees, which ensures they are able to confirm their identities and qualifications. To comply with the Asylum, Immigration and Nationality Act 2006, all prospective employees are asked to supply evidence of their eligibility to work in the UK. References are also requested and followed up.

Staff engaged in these activities receive a higher level of training to enable them to spot issues of concern relating to modern slavery and understand how to support and respond to concerns.
- 6.3 Procurement training for all managers has been improved to coincide with the revised strategy, processes and ICT system. This includes content about modern slavery.

7.0 Partnership working

Safe Derbyshire Partnership and the Organised Crime Partnership led by Derbyshire Police. We work with colleagues to develop a common understanding and partnership approach to the threats, vulnerabilities and risks relating to slavery and human trafficking. This approach is also applied to our strategic migration work locally, countywide and regionally.
